Building alone $690sf / with site work $775sf / with soft costs $970sf

Value engineering could reduce the cost by $2.2M with lesser quality finishes. Solar panels, polycarbonate, roof, windows, siding, floor coverings & artwork.

$28.1M – Total project cost

$18.5M – 66% of total cost estimate (Requested PFD funding)

-$2.5M – Less land acquisition & design costs

$16.M - Construction cost eligible for PFD funding

$25.6M - Construction estimates in 2026

WORK DESCRIPTION AND ROLES AND RESPONSIBILITIES

WORK DESCRIPTION – PERC FEASIBILITY ANALYSES KITSAP PUBLIC FACILITIES DISTRICT PHASE I FUNDING PROCESS

The following work elements and specific roles and responsibilities for performing project feasibility are derived from three documents that are currently guiding the KPFD evaluation and assessment of the proposed PERC development:

- Feasibility Study Guide for Sports and Recreation Facilities produced by the Western Australia Department of Sport and Recreation (further referred to as the 2007 FS Guide)
- KPFD Proposal Funding Process dated June 7, 2017 (further referred to as the 2017 Funding Process)
- CITY PERC Proposal dated December 31, 2018, and subsequent presentations and clarifications (further and collectively referred to as the PERC Proposal).

Each of these guiding documents identifies a Feasibility Study as a necessary step to develop a sufficient level of detail to present specific design criteria and construction programming. The 2007 FS Guide identifies a five-part feasibility study, that occurs at Phase II of facility planning process (2007 FS Guide, section 2). The 2017 Funding Guidelines identifies independent feasibility review by both the KPFD and the Facility Partner (Phase I paragraph B). The PERC Proposal identifies a seven-part Feasibility requirement as part of Phase I of the project development process, many of which overlap with the 2007 FS Guide process. The work elements and specific roles and responsibilities described below were derived to address elements of each guiding document. Specific work elements identify the guiding document(s) that cited that work element.

The feasibility study work will involve completing the Concept Planning and implementing the Feasibility Analysis as described in the 2007 FS Guide (process chart shown in Section 5.0 Figure 1). To better align with the 2017 Funding Process and PERC Proposal, the Design and Technical Evaluation, Staging Alternatives, and Sustainability elements of the 2007 FS Guide process will be reserved for Phase II of the 2017 KPFD Funding Process.

The following work elements and roles and responsibilities define the Feasibility Study process for the PERC Proposal:

Community Outreach (2007 FS Guide Phase I; 2017 Funding Process Phase I; PERC Proposal Phase I)

Objective: Engage community members and potential user groups to solicit more specific community

input on PERC functions and funding alternatives for the CITY match

Understanding: The CITY spent $ 20,000 conducting community outreach in 2015 through 2017 to assess recreational and community facility development. This work identified a community demand for more sports fields that are better accessible to multiple organized sports leagues and to provide more opportunities for regional tournament events. This outreach also identified a community need for improved recreation facilities and meeting spaces. The CITY's outreach in 2018 with business and educational institutions identified a need for meeting and conference facilities to support the neighboring college and university facilities and business programs. This community input was the basis for the CITY preparing and submitting their proposal for the PERC. With the PERC being identified as a finalist for KPFD funding, the CITY now needs to refine its usage analysis and confirm the feasibility of constructing and operating sports fields and the events and recreation center. The outreach work will support critical decisions regarding possible real estate requirements, building space layout, the fields configuration and connectivity to campuses, hotels, and retail centers.

Roles and Responsibilities: The CITY will establish a coordinating committee (2007 FS Guide) that will include the KPFD Executive Director, a CITY Director, and community members jointly selected by the CITY and KPFD. The coordinating committee will facilitate and monitor community outreach through the feasibility process to arrive at a final facility and field configuration for the PERC. The outreach will involve meetings to assess usage requirements and space alternatives. There will be public information meetings to present alternatives and the ultimate findings of the Feasibility Study. All recommendations developed by the committee will be presented to the KPFD Board and CITY Council. The KPFD Board action on the final recommendations will conclude the coordinating committee. Future outreach in the form of open houses or informational meetings will be completed by the CITY under later phases of the 2017 Funding Process.

Market Analysis (2007 FS Guide, PERC Proposal)

Objective: To assess and identify the potential facility users and target market groups that would rely on or utilize the facility and provide usage estimates input to the Draft Management Plan (2007 FS Guide).

Understanding: The PERC is proposed as a multi-functional facility providing for sports and recreation, conferences, trade shows, training, performing arts, and community events. As such the market analysis will need to identify and assess multiple users and target market groups that span across several industries, age ranges, regions, and government sectors. Therefore, the Market Analysis should be performed by professional with experience with the multi-use facilities or a group of professionals that can assess key PERC functions and combine their assessments into a single Market Analysis Report.

Roles and Responsibilities: The CITY will issue a Request for Professional Services for a professional consultant team to conduct the market analysis. The KPFD will review and provide input to the RFP and participate with the CITY in selecting the consultant team. The CITY will manage the consultant's work and provide milestone reports to the KPFD. The analysis will rely on socio-demographic information compiled by the CNW in their recent market study and supplement it with new and more specific information about the multiple uses anticipated for the PERC. The CITY will provide the KPFD with a draft Market Analysis. The KPFD will submit the draft Market Analysis to an independent 3rd Party for review and concurrence with the methods, assumptions, findings, and conclusions. The final Market Analysis will be published with the input from the 3rd party review.

Draft Management Plan (2007 FS Guide)

Objective: Refine the CITY's existing management plan (PERC Proposal) to incorporate findings of the Market Analysis and Community Outreach and to prepare a preliminary management and marketing strategy (2007 FS Guide) for the PERC.

Understanding: The PERC Proposal identifies that the CITY will employ a combination of direct management for recreation facilities and fields, and contract management for the events center. The PERC proposal also identifies preliminary staffing requirements. Because of the multiple uses for the PERC, individual usage estimates and marketing strategies (2007 FS Guide) need to be independently developed for the conference facility, the fields, and the recreation facilities. The development of usage estimates will be based on input from the market analysis and recommendations from the coordinating committee that oversees community outreach activities. The usage estimates will be further analyzed to arrive at specific participation projections for each target group and PERC function identified in the market analysis.

Roles and Responsibilities: The CITY will use a combination of input from the Market Analysis and Community Outreach, existing Parks and Recreation information and comparable sports field usage rates, and PERC proposal information to prepare a Draft Management Plan. The CITY will utilize a combination of in-house resources and professional services to perform the necessary analysis and prepare the plan as described in the 2007 FS Guide. The KPFD will review the Draft Management Plan and use the findings to assess the opportunities and constraints associated with developing the PERC.

Draft Management Plan

Concept Plan/Location Rationale (2007 FS Guide, PERC Proposal (land use))

Objective: Integrate the Market Analysis and Draft Management Plan inputs to further inform a Concept Plan for the PERC, including site configuration and connectivity for both the fields and the events space

Understanding: The PERC Proposal presents preliminary concept plans for PERC elements. The plan reflects the input received during outreach performed by the CITY in 2016 and 2017 but does not reflect the anticipated outputs from the Market Analysis and Community Outreach elements of the Feasibility process. While the CITY is contributing six acres of land for the PERC that is considered suitable for development, there is no specific site analysis as described in the 2007 FS Guide and identified in Phase I B.A of the 2017 Funding Process.

Roles and Responsibilities: The CITY will conduct a site analysis to evaluate specific provisions for building pads, fields configuration, parking requirements, the location of utility connections, public services requirements, and adjacencies to arrive at a preferred facility orientation. Based on this analysis, the CITY may recommend to the KPFD that additional property be acquired to accommodate all project objectives. Using information from the site analysis, market analysis, community outreach, and Draft Management Plan, the CITY will prepare a revised Concept Plan that will become the basis for future development analysis. The CITY will use a combination of in-house staff and professional services to develop and prepare the Concept Plan. The output from this work will be a series of site plans and building floor plans that will inform the Design and Technical Evaluation element of the 2007 FS Guide and the 2017 Funding Process Phase II A.

Financial Analysis (2007 FS Guide; 2017 Funding Process; PERC Proposal)

Objective: To evaluate financing options and develop financial estimates of capital cost requirements, net operating revenue, sales and revenue tax generation, job creation, and maintenance obligations and prepare a preliminary 20-year financial analysis for PERC operation.

Understanding: The development of an up to $35M public project requires a significant analysis of multiple financial elements. The analysis must consider not only the facility development and operations costs, but also the costs for pursuing and obtaining supplemental funding (CITY match); which may include a combination of government bonds, voted levy, formation of a special use district, grants, legislative allocations, private contributions, and general fund revenues. The Financial Analysis needs to be sufficiently robust to explore the details and combinations of each funding source and assess the timeline and processes necessary to obtain supplemental funding.

Roles and Responsibilities: The KPFD will authorize the KPFD Bond Counsel and Financial Advisor to work with the CITY on key elements of a meaningful financial analysis. The CITY will retain a financial and economic consultant to provide facility-specific analyses of retail sales, lodging tax, operational revenues, and job creation resulting from development of the PERC. The CITY, with the support of the KPFD Financial Advisor will prepare a 20-year financial plan (2007 FS Guidelines). The financial analysis will be developed consistent with the requirements of the Washington Department of Commerce and consider the following cost elements:

- Capital Costs, including engineering and architectural costs, permits, construction, management, and administration.
- Operations and maintenance for both the fields, and events and recreation facility, including routine requirements, anticipated capital replacement projects, and possible future improvements.

- Bond alternatives and the associated cost to develop bond programs, sell bonds, and repayment costs for municipal bonds of varying value (KPFD Bond Counsel).
- Levy or special use district alternatives and the associated costs of developing legal and revenue analyses.
- Identify state and federal grant programs, their funding levels, and associated timelines, including the effort and match required to pursue, negotiate, and administer grant agreements.
- Analyze legislative processes to obtain funding through a state or federal legislative allocation.
- Private financing alternatives
- Private and Institutional partnerships
- Sponsorship and naming rights revenues
- Community funding, including the establishment and operation of a 501C3 (i.e., Friends of the PERC) to lobby for and gather funds for stewardship and maintenance of the Facility

Working with the KPFD Financial Advisor, this information will be analyzed under differing scenarios to assess the possible financial outcomes of the PERC development. The financial statements developed through the Financial Analysis will also be tested for sensitivity (2007 FS Guide) to assess the impact of possible future changes in usage demand, increased price competition, changes in regional economic conditions (i.e., downturn) and other factors. The CITY will prepare a financial analysis report for consideration by the KPFD Board. The KPFD will conduct an independent review of the financial analysis to ensure consistency with Department of Commerce requirements and to validate assumptions and sensitivities presented in the analysis. The report will also provide a basis for future community engagement, CITY Council budget approvals, and project controls that will be developed during Phase II of the KPFD Funding Process.

Project Administration – Feasibility Determination (PERC Proposal)

Objective: The shared administration of the PERC Feasibility Study to ensure the timely and cost-effective delivery of work funded by the KPFD and the CITY.

Understanding: The analysis and delivery of a viable and defendable feasibility study in accordance with the guiding documents will require regular and routine administration and communication between the KPFD and the CITY. Regular meetings to discuss progress, identify issues, reconcile issues, and monitor costs are needed to ensure timely decision making and the efficient processing of invoices and reports. will form a steering committee to administer the day-to-day work and decision-making needed

Roles and Responsibilities: The KPFD and CITY will jointly form an executive team to provide for the administration and decision-making necessary to deliver the Feasibility Study. The KPFD Executive and a CITY Director will serve as the executive team. The CITY will provide support staff to administer scheduling, meetings, and reporting.

Work Products:

Monthly reports and invoices for re-imbursement Meeting agendas and summaries

Upon completion of the Feasibility Study, the CITY will present the feasibility findings and recommendation to the KPFD Board. The KPFD Board will review the information, assess the business feasibility and financial viability of the PERC, and render a decision on forwarding the PERC to Phase II of the 2017 Funding Process. The KPFD and CITY will prepare a new ILA for any Phase II work authorized by the KPFD Board.

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

POULSBO EVENTS AND RECREATION

CENTER (PERC) CITY OF POULSBO

December 31, 2018

PROJECT DESCRIPTION

The continued impressive growth of the greater Poulsbo community has generated a ground swell of resident demands for expanded opportunities for education, recreation and athletics, community support services, and a venue for meetings, industry forums and performances. The demand is shown through the steady and balanced growth of families and retirees in the North Kitsap and Southwest Jefferson County that has increased enrollment and course offerings at the Olympic College/Western Washington University Poulsbo Campuses and provided the economic catalyst for the reinvestment and expansion of the College Market Place. Studies conducted by the City over the past several years¹ support that there is a pent-up demand in the Poulsbo area for a new special events center.

To address the community need, leverage opportunities with private and institutional partners, and stimulate the economic growth of the greater Poulsbo area and the broader Kitsap Community, the City of Poulsbo proposes to match Kitsap Pubic Facility District (KPFD) funding dollar for dollar, for the development of the Poulsbo Events and Recreation Center

The Poulsbo Events and Recreation Center meets the PFD Legislative Objectives by providing:

- Event Space
- Tournament-scale sports fields
- Continuing education and recreation programs

(PERC). The new public facility will be constructed on City-owned property within the College Market Place Master Plan adjacent to the SR3 and SR305 interchange. The PERC would include a 15,000 sf Event Center for trade shows, corporate meetings, exhibitions, weddings, and institutional functions such as lecture series or off-campus collaboration events. The Event Center will be connected to a minimum of 4-acres of multi-use lighted all-season sports fields with tournament capabilities for soccer, lacrosse, football, ultimate, and other field sports. Coincident with the Event Center and sports fields there will be an additional 10,000 to 15,000 square feet of office, classroom, and administration space for Parks and Recreation classes, training sessions, events management, and a commercial kitchen to support the conference facility and culinary training. Other elements such as indoor sport courts, a swim facility, and a performance auditorium may be considered during the project feasibility study (Part III) but will be ancillary to the three primary components: fields, events, and recreation programs.
